Dear Dr. Payne:

On behalf of the entire staff, I would like to thank you for obtaining and networking the computers in our lab as well as the ones designated for the library. You and your team have worked wonders in the computer lab. Your efforts will enable our students to take advantage of the resources now available with these computers.

The hours that you and your friends spent building our network and ensuring that we'd be ready when school opened is remarkable considering your busy schedules. Some of our students will be able to use the lab computers for homework as they don't have access to one at home.

When Comcast has wired our building and the printers are repaired, I will contact William L. Janning at ThyssenKrupp for a follow-up article. I'd like the computer lab and library to be completely functional before calling him.

Thanks again, we are eternally grateful for the time and energy spent in our school by your team of experts.
