Dear JDS Computers,

Thank you for your generosity in committing to help our school. We now have 22 good working computers, a network, and are soon to have the Internet.

Private schools in Detroit usually are lacking in technology due to tight budgets and limited finances. With your help in providing us these new innovations, we are now offering the students a chance to step into the 21st century. None of this would have ever been possible if it were not for your generosity.

St. Bartholomew School is very appreciative. You are remembered in our prayers.

Sincerely,

Sharon Perko, Principal
